Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

The Lateran Basilica in Rome is the only church building whose dedication is celebrated as a feast. It is an enduring symbol of the universal church. It was originally completed in the year 324 as a sign of the triumph of the faithful who survived underground during the years of persecution.

This Church is known as The Mother Church

Why Catholic: Nov. 9

This week's question:

2. After the consecration (The transformation of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ during the Eucharist)

a. The host on the paten is Jesus' body, and the contents of the chalice are Jesus' blood.

b. The host symbolizes Jesus' body, and the wine symbolizes Jesus' blood.

c. The host is both Jesus' body and blood, and the wine is both Jesus' body and blood.

d. Jesus' body and blood are really present with the bread and the wine, and this is called the Real Presence.

e. None of the above.

Can you help Head Start?

They would like to go to Breakfast and the movies on December 3 rd. The cost for the children, teachers, and aides totals $217.30 There will be a container for donations in Church. They are always so grateful for our help!
