Why Catholic: Nov. 16

This week's question:

2. After the consecration (The transformation of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ during the Eucharist)
a. The host on the paten is Jesus' body, and the contents of the chalice are Jesus' blood
a. Wrong, because the host and the contents of the chalice are each both the body and blood of Jesus, even though, because of their appearances, we commonly call one the body and the other the blood.

b. The host symbolizes Jesus' body, and the wine symbolizes Jesus' blood.

b. Wrong, because the host and wine do not symbolize Jesus but become him.

c. The host is both Jesus' body and blood, and the wine is both Jesus' body and blood.

c. Correct, because both the host and the wine (which is no longer wine but is called that only because of its appearance) become both the real body and blood of Jesus.

d. Jesus' body and blood are really present with the bread and the wine, and this is called the Real Presence.

d. Wrong, because after the consecration the bread and wine cease to be present, so Jesus' body and blood cannot be present with them.

e. None of the above. C is correct
