Prayer for Global Peace

Father, we pray for nations suffering from terrorism. Protect the innocent and bring an end to violent acts. Soften the hearts of those driven by hatred and guide them toward peace. Strengthen the communities affected and comfort the grieving. Let Your justice prevail, and Your mercy heal the broken. Bring peace to the streets and safety to every home. We trust You to bring light into darkness and hope into despair. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Why Catholic:

Instead of addressing a "Why Catholic" topic, this letter is to our parishioners. First and foremost, I want to express our deepest gratitude for your financial support, as well as your devoted time and talent. At this time, the parish is facing a situation that requires our collective prayers. We are continually reviewing our finances and we have slowly incurred a deficit of nearly $9,000, compared to this time last year. We are reaching out to you to seek your guidance and support in addressing this concern.

We are exploring ways of making it easier to donate, possibly electronically. Every gift, regardless of the amount, is a blessing to us. We try to be the best stewards of the treasure of our parish members.

Thank you for your unwavering support and commitment to our parish.

Again, please take this to prayer.
