The yearly parish Catholic Stewardship Renewal process is very similar to renewing our baptismal promises in that it gives us an ongoing opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to our parish and its ministries. It is our way of concretely renewing our commitment to our parish and showing that – through that commitment - we belong to our parish family and are supportive of its vision, mission, and ministries. Through the grace of God, we are each given gifts and we are called to share these gifts in love of God and neighbor. Through prayerful discernment, we can become more intentional with sharing our gifts with our parish

RELIGIOUS & SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Loving the Lord, our God with all our heart, mind and soul, and loving our neighbor is a discipline that outlines our religious and social responsibilities. We have covenant with God through professed faith as we acknowledge God's authority over us with a sense of duty to love him and serve him. Taught by Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God and our Savior, we are to love God in all things and in every circumstance. We owe God our devotion and loyalty by keeping to his laws and commandments . This is where our covenant with God automates our social contract with the living.

Our religious obligations or duties to the greatest extent compare us to carry out social activities to demonstrate our love for God and neighbors. God is compassionate, kind, loving and caring and we are to live in imitation of him as faith teaches us. The sense here is : If God bless us with plenty we are expected to bless those in need; if we enjoy God's protection, then we who are strong must protect the vulnerable; if in all our weakness , God welcomes us into his presence, then we ought to welcome one another in our midst; if we cherish and value the life God has given us, then we must work to protect and enhance the life of others; and if we are comforted, we must rejoice with those who are rejoicing and mourn with those who are mourning (cf Exodus 22:20-226; Matthew 22:34-40). May God help to be religious and socially responsible Christians.

Peace!
Fr. Ussher
